See You at the Dance

Get your ticket for the Fire Department dance, to take place at the Carmel Garage tomorrow evening. Because you subscribed toward the purchase of a chemical engine four years ago, you are not relieved of all future support of the Fire Department, the members of which play no favorites when a fire breaks out.

There will be up-to-date music, a clean floor, and seats for spectators. Every property owner should help to provide an alarm signal.

Pine Needles

On Thursday last Miss Betty Waud, for seven years primary teacher in the local public school, departed for Oakland, where she will make her home with her sister-in-law for the time being. She hopes to obtain a position in the Alameda county schools.

Mrs. S. B. Hunkins is enjoying a visit from her daughter, Mrs. Lapham, who is a highly accomplished pianist. For some time she was accompanist for Madame Louise Homer.

Winsor Josselyn, Philip Wilson Jr. and William Machado have been selected to represent Carmelo Precinct in the proposed formation of a Monterey county branch of the American Legion.

Firemen's Dance at Carmel Garage tomorrow evening.

During the absence of the H. L. Wilsons in the East, the Basham family are occupying Ocean Home at Carmel Highlands.

After a two month's visit with Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Rask, the Winsletts have returned to Dallas. They sold their Ford before leaving.

Arthur Cyril, whom many will remember for his fine work on the Forest Theatre stage, is again in Carmel. He has been seventeen months in France with the U. S. Army Medical Corps.

The Milwain family is down from Oakland to occupy their San Carlos avenue cottage for three weeks.

Two more soldier boys reached home last week. Mark Edmonds is here with his aunt, and Weaver Kitchen is visiting in Carmel Valley with his sister, Mrs. Wade Stewart.

Mrs. Josselyn and her two sons have gone to Pasadena for three months. They expect that Lewis will join them in the southern city in August.

W. C. Lewis, recently employed on the Yreka News, and previously city editor of Monterey and Salinas papers, has taken an editorial job on the Watsonville Register.

D. A. Leonard and wife of Dos Palos are occupying their cottage here, and their son Lawrence will come down from Berkeley next week. They will remain through the summer.

Early next month Attorney Chas. Clark, accompanied by Mrs. Clark and Miss Margaret, will leave for a month's stay at Lake Tahoe.

Just a little fishing trip. George Schweninger and Gus Brelia are home from San Luis Obispo. After getting the limit every day, there was nothing to do but lay around and lounge for the cooling zephyrs of Carmel.

Men's and Boys' Furnishings at Holman's.

Dr. H. H. Kelsey and family of Berkeley will be here for two months and will reside in the Williams cottage in the Eighty-Acre Tract.

Earl F. Ammerman and Cameron E. Waite, brother and nephew of Mrs. J. E. Beck, are on their way to Carmel from Danville, Pennsylvania. They will remain here indefinitely. Welcome to our city!

You are protected by a $10,000 accident bond when you travel in Carmel Garage Stages. We are responsible.—C. O. Gould.

For Memorial Hospital

Last week's Pine Cone promised an interesting announcement this week concern an event to take place here in connection with the plan to aid the endowment fund of the proposed American Memorial Hospital at Rheims, France. Here it is.

On Friday, July 11, at Arts and Crafts Hall, the Cleveland Symphony Quartette, under the direction of Nikolai Sokoloff, is to play.

It is through the courtesy of Mrs. J. B. Casserley, who brought the quartette from Cleveland to San Mateo, that Anne Dare was able to arrange for this musical treat, and Madam Dare will be assisted by Mesdames Fraser, Hand, Silva, Young, Prince, Hooper, Overstreet, Birdseye, and Crane, and Miss Stryker Smith.

Mrs. Wellington Clark and Mrs. T. H. Criley will have charge at Carmel Highlands.

A clean, comfortable kitchen all year 'round

With a good oil cookstove and Pearl Oil you will cook in comfort all year 'round. Gives all the convenience of gas, without the dust and dirt of coal or wood. Bakes, broils, roasts, toasts—economically.

Lights at the touch of a match. No waiting for fires to come up, no unnecessary work, no waste. Concentrates a steady heat on the cooking—leaving the kitchen cool and comfortable.

Pearl Oil, the Standard Oil Company's kerosene, is a most convenient and economical fuel. Easy to handle. It is refined and re-refined by our special process which removes the impurities. It is clean burning.

Pearl Oil is for sale in bulk by dealers everywhere. It is the same high-quality kerosene as the Pearl Oil sold in five-gallon cans. There is a saving by buying in bulk. Order by name—Pearl Oil.

Bath House Open

The big Bath House on Carmel's splendid white beach opened for the season last night with a dance.

Philip Wilson Jr. is the manager this year. He will strive to make the place a popular resort for visitors and residents.

The life line will be put out this week, so that such bathing may be enjoyed with perfect safety. Food will be served at reasonable prices. An electric piano has been installed for those who may desire to walk down to the beach for a dance or two.

For President HIRAM W. JOHNSON

WEEKLY GREETING

As I live, saith the King, whose name is the Lord of hosts, surely as Tabor is among the mountains and as Carmel by the sea, so shall He come.—Jeremiah xlviii:18.

Carmel has had many notable exhibitions of paintings, and could well rest content with its established reputation in this respect. But progress and high ideals is the watchword, and it is certain that the exhibition which opens tonight at Arts and Crafts Hall will be the best ever held here. More than thirty artists will show canvases.

The sixth season of the Carmel Summer School of Art begins on Monday, July 7, and closes August 30. M. De Neale Morgan is this year's director. Directors of other years were William Chase, C. P. Townsley, Matteo Sandona.

Miss Lillian Genthe, an accomplished artist from the East, who has painted some notable figures of women, is expected here this summer.

Francis Todhunter, member of the Hammer and Tongs Club and manager of a San Francisco art concern, is spending his second summer here with Mrs. Todhunter.

Student artists in Monterey just now include Miss Francis Brooks, Phillips Lewis, Miss Lucy Pierce, Richard Sullivan, Mary B. Groom, and E. Curjel.

Artist materials and framing at Carmel News Co., L. S. Slevin, Manager.

Ralph H. Johonnet, one time instructor at Pratt Institute, well-known artist and master colorist, is expected here soon from Pasadena to complete arrangements for his summer classes.

The new studio of Laura W. Maxwell, at Santa Lucia Avenue and Camino, Real, is completed. The location is ideal, commanding a superb view of ocean, river and mountains.

Anna Cora Winchell, in the S. F. Chronicle, writes: "Kate Carew, whose clever sketches and caricatures of famous people are a matter of interest in the art world of London, New York and San Francisco, has taken the Boronda place in Monterey. Kate Carew uses the patio for much of her outdoor work, and is now also engaged in picturing several new interesting personalities."

NOTICE

OFFICE OF THE TAX COLLECTOR OF MON-TEREY CO., CAL., SA-LINAS CITY, JUNE 2, 1919.

I, J. E. Hunter, as Tax Collector in and for the County of Monterey, State of California, give notice to all the delinquent taxpayers and property owners mentioned, set forth and described in the foregoing Delinquent List in the Carmel Sanitary District, State of California, that unless the taxes delinquent, together with the costs and penalties, as shown in the Delinquent List, are not paid prior to THURSDAY, JUNE 26, 1919, I will on said 26th day of June, 1919, in the office of the Tax Collector, in the Court House in Salinas City, at the hour of 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, sell to the State of California, as provided in Section 3771 of the Political Code of the State of California, all the real property mentioned, set forth and described in said Delinquent List, and upon which said taxes are a lien.

J. E. HUNTER,
Tax Collector.

It Was a Success

The Strawberry Festival, held last Thursday afternoon on the "lawn" of Carmel Church, proved an enjoyable affair. The weather clerk provided a perfect day, and the decorating committee, with flags and flowers, showed what could be done to make a neglected vacant lot look attractive.

Over a hundred people came to enjoy the refreshments and the sociability, and the treasury of the the Woman's Auxiliary received a substantial sum, and are grateful to those who assisted in bringing about this result.

Date is Set For City Bond Election

At an adjourned meeting of the city Board of Trustees on Tuesday evening an ordinance calling an election on Tuesday, July 22, to vote upon the proposition to issue $7500 of municipal bonds to pay
one-fourth of the cost of improving Ocean Avenue, was read.

Election officers were appointed as follows: Inspectors, Paul C.
Prince and Herbert Heron; clerks,
Mrs. B. O. Warren and Mrs. W.
L. Overstreet; judges, Preston W.
Search and John L. Williams.

The board went on record as heartily in favor of the forty million dollar State roads bond issue,
and urges a big vote in Carmel on July 1.

Not a single protest was made against the proposed street work on Eighth Avenue, Camino Real and Monte Verde Street, so that the next proceeding will be the advertising for bids to do the work.
